PENSACOLA MAN
KILLS HIMSELF
IN A HOSPITALW. L. Linton, Who Went to Mobile Recently, Cut His Throat With Small Pocket Knife.

Special to The Journal.
Mobile, May 13.—W. L. Linton, a white man, apparently fifty-three years of age, committed suicide last night at 11:50 o'clock at the hospital by cutting his throat with a knife. The cause of the man ending his life in such a sensational manner was his addition to the use of morphine, he being a confirmed user of the terrible drug that has sent so many to the bad. The home of the dead man is in Pensacola, Fla., and the only paper leading up to any of his relatives and friends was an envelope with the name, Ole Jensen, Pensacola, Fla., on it. The body has been taken in charge by the Roche Undertaking Company and will be held pending instructions.

Used Small Knife.
From the record of the board of health, Linton was admitted to the city hospital yesterday morning or Tuesday night and at the time was in a terrible condition from the effects of the drug. He was made comfortable by the good Sisters of Charity and extraordinary pains taken to relieve him. A special nurse was put in charge of the man, so bad was his condition. Linton constantly begged for the drug, pleading for it with tears in his eyes, but the medical people deemed it best that he should not have it. Last night at the hour mentioned above the nurse went out for less than five minutes and during that time the man pulled a small pocket knife that he had hidden about his person and severed his jugular vein on the right side of the neck. He was seen to make the slash on his throat by another patient who gave the alarm and called the nurse. When she arrived at the bedside of the man he was dying and expired in a few minutes.

Linton appeared to be a man of intelligence and it is believed that he has people of some means in the Florida city.

Little Soldiers

In your blood are the millions of corpuscles that defend you against disease.

To make and keep these little soldiers healthy and strong, is simply to make and keep the blood of the right quality and quantity.

This is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does—it helps the little soldiers in your blood to fight disease for you.

It cures scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, dyspepsia, general debility, and builds up the whole system.

CALL ON GOVERNOR.
In view of these facts, about forty of the most prominent and representative business men of the city, including lawyers, bankers, doctors and merchants, waited upon the governor this morning and, placing before him the foregoing facts, asked him to see that no unnecessary delay should occur in fixing the date of Morris's execution. These men deemed it necessary for the public peace that some expression from the governor should be obtained that would serve to satisfy the disaffected citizens that justice would be done as speedily as is consistent with the demands of decency and mercy.

Governor Gilchrist promised to take the matter under advisement and asked that a committee of six selected from the delegation should wait upon him in the executive office this afternoon. There the matter was exhaustively discussed, and the committee was assured that the sentence would be carried out within thirty days.

TALLAHASSEE
NEWS NOTESItems of Interest Gathered at the Capital of Florida.

Special to The Journal.
Tallahassee, May 13.—The lady members of the Florida State College faculty were delightfully entertained yesterday by Mrs. Henry T. Felkel at her beautiful residence on Park avenue. These ladies, who are all great favorites with the townspeople, will soon leave Tallahassee, some of them not to return at the beginning of another school year, and their friends turned out en masse to do them this last social honor.

The guests, among whom there were many strangers, were welcomed at the door of the spacious hall by Mrs. Crosby Dawkins and Miss Sallie Blake. They were then ushered into the front parlor where stood the charming hostess, assisted in her duties by Mrs. Fred Hudson, Mrs. J. H. Humphries, Mrs. Donald C. McMullen, Mrs. H. H. McCreary, Mrs. S. J. Hilburn, Mrs. Withers and Mrs. Dayton.

In a bay-windowed extension, separated from the back parlor by two archways, one on each side the large chimney piece, stood exquisitely arranged tables, whose snowy linen, hanging nearly to the floor had a wide border of delicate smilax which harmonized beautifully with the green tints predominating in the lovely china and the feathery fronds of heavenly bamboo in the vases among the cut flower decorations. At these tables stood Mrs. T. M. Shackelford, Mrs. J. W. Winthrop, Mrs. G. W. Saxon, and Mrs. J. C. Byars to serve the guests during the first hour of the afternoon.

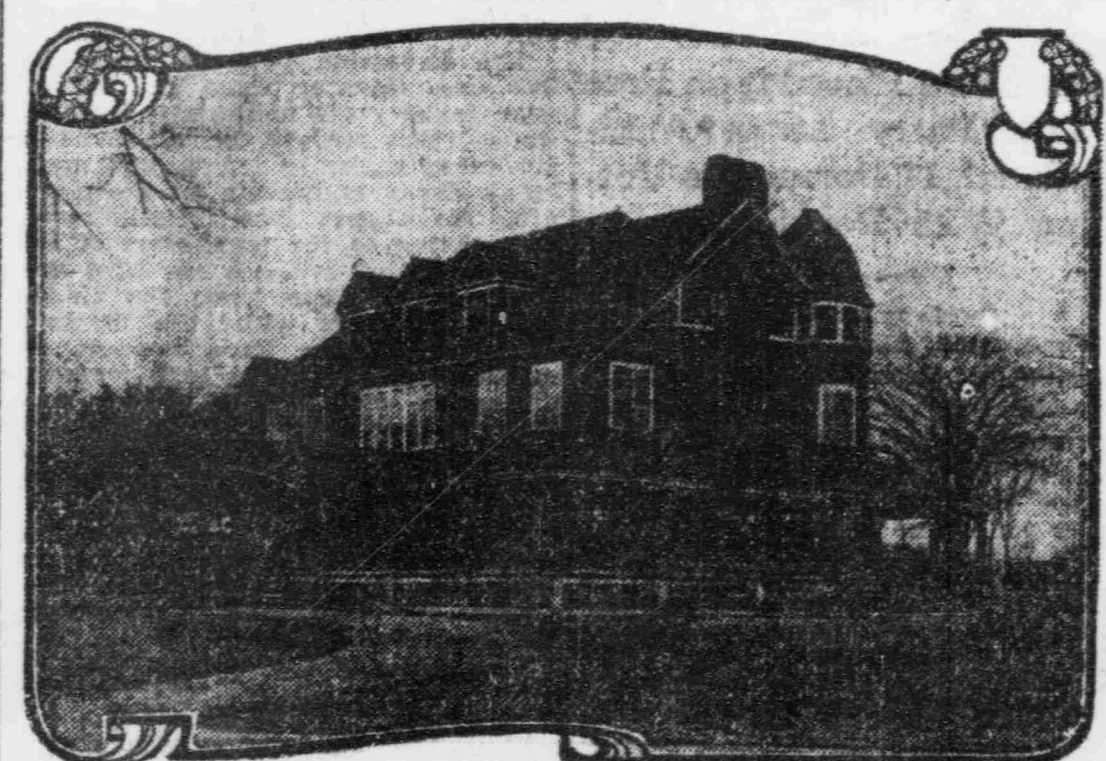

cake, strawberry ice cream and divinity fudge. They were relieved during the second hour by Mrs. Talbot Whitfield, Miss Ella Nash, Mrs. Letitia Beard and Mrs. W. M. Holloway.

Delightful music was furnished during the afternoon by some of the local musicians who are always so generous in contributing to the enjoyment of these occasions. First on the program was a piano trio given by Misses Edmondson, Tatum and Damon. This was followed by a lovely vocal solo by Mrs. Park Trammell. Then two piano selections by Mrs. Carol Griek-Van Weeren, followed by two songs by Mrs. Hudson, whose beautiful contralto voice is always in great demand. Next came several exquisitely rendered violin selections by four of Mrs. Florence Heckenburg's pupils from the college, Misses Mary Page Randolph, Elise Partridge, Lola Snyder and Ada Moore. This talented quartette was accompanied by Mrs. Heckenburg, who is not only a gifted violinist, but also a pianist of rare attainment.

As is usual in affairs of this kind, when given in Tallahassee, the flower gardens of the city were rife with their choicest blossoms to adorn the beautiful rooms set apart for the reception of the guests. Felkel's many guests. The broad hall, extending through the entire length of the house, was beautifully furnished with potted ferns, and vases of English daisies, roses and pansies of every tint. In the front parlor, sweet peas in immense clusters were placed everywhere, while maroon-colored nasturtiums, banked on the mantel, glowed with vivid coloring. The back parlor was beautiful with yellow nasturtiums, and dahlias of the same

MADE TO WEARSUMMER COTTAGE THE TAFTS WILL OCCUPY AT BEVERLY, MASS.

Mrs. Taft has decided to take the Robert D. Evans cottage at Beverly, Mass., for the summer residence of the presidential family. The president left the matter of selecting the summer capital entirely to Mrs. Taft. They will go to Beverly as soon as congress adjourns. The cottage is two stories and a half and is painted green. There is a great covered porte-cochere over the private driveway leading to the house, and running around three sides of it is a wide veranda, while on the ocean side is a tower crowned with a dome. The entire house is sumptuously furnished, and there is a stable large enough for eight horses; also a large garage. The house is lighted by electricity and has every modern blue, while in the extension where the tables were set exquisite pot plants were arranged. On the tables were great bunches of sweet peas and pansies, and occupying a place of honor on a small stand, royal in its isolation and beauty, was a fleur de lis, the French flower emblem of royalty. This was sent from the hothouses of Mrs. George Lewis, and attracted much attention.

The number of strangers present was an unusual feature. Many of the legislature this season are accompanied by their wives, and these were all present, adding largely to the distinction and success of the entertainment.

A STEAMER LINE TO JACKSONVILLE

BY THE INSIDE ROUTE FROM SAVANNAH—HARVEY GRANGER'S PROJECT.

Although a steamer line by the inside route from Savannah to Jacksonville has been agitated from time to time and has never yet been carried to conclusion, it has again bobbed up in Savannah, and this time is to have notice from the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, says the Savannah News.

Harvey Granger, of Savannah, has communicated to the Savannah Chamber of Commerce on the subject, citing Capt. E. B. Fitzgerald as his authority in nautical matters. Mr. Granger thinks that the investment would be profitable for a stock company, and he has the backing of Captain Fitzgerald in this judgment. It is estimated by Captain Fitzgerald aid that such a steamer could be built for $50,000, and could be maintained the year round at an expense of $67.33 a day, this amount to include all the usual operating expenses, including the wages of officers and crew, agents and dockage. The steamer is to be, if it is to be, 150 feet long and 30 feet beam, with a hold of 61-2 feet and draft of 2 feet; to have twenty-five staterooms and two bridal chambers; a long promenade deck and skylight the full length of the saloon, the speed to be thirteen miles an hour.

The inside route would include stops at Darien, Brunswick and Fernandina. Being prepared for passenger travel it is considered that it would be possible for such a boat to build up a considerable traffic on this character, and that it would be liberally patronized by the local merchants. The possibilities in winter and summer for passengers would be attractive.
